King County Elections serves voters in the nation's 14th largest county. In the past three years, King County has continued to support accurate and transparent elections by funding new positions and providing a new state-of-the-art facility located in Renton, Washington, just 20 minutes from downtown Seattle. We are looking for a strong leader to join us as we make King County the largest all-mail voting jurisdiction in the nation. We believe in accountability, respect and teamwork and invite those that share these values to join our team.

OPENING DATE: 03/14/08

CLOSING DATE: Continuous

JOB NUMBER: 2008AT00062

SUMMARY: This position is responsible for over-all executive level management, oversight and planning for the conduct of local, state and federal elections in King County. King County is designing and implementing a county-wide vote by mail system and requires an individual with independent judgment, project management skills and professional managerial knowledge to formulate policies and direct the strategic and logistical needs of all election processes and operations. King County has approximately 1.1 million registered voters, nearly 2,600 voting precincts and currently 407 polling locations across the county. In a county-wide election approximately 638,000 absentee/mail ballots are issued and processed.
