Training for the WEDC System

As you might have heard, the Government Accountability Board recently modified the GAB-190 form and developed an internet application known as WEDC to gather the same data online. Many clerks have been informed about the WEDC system and may have received training to use it. The training could have been conducted in person or online.

1. Are you aware of the GAB’s new Wisconsin Election Data Collection (WEDC) application?
   - Yes ⇒ Continue on to Question 2
   - No ⇒ Skip to Question 23

2. Did you participate in any kind of training for the new WEDC system?
   - Yes ⇒ Skip to Question 5
   - No ⇒ Continue on to Question 3

3. Why did you not participate in training? (Select all that apply.)
   - I did not know training was offered.
   - The training was held at an inconvenient time or place.
   - I lacked resources to attend the training.
   - The training did not appear to be useful.
   - I did not participate for another reason.

4. Would you be willing to receive training in the future?
   - Yes
   - No ⇒ Skip to Question 9 at the beginning of the next section

5. Did your training occur in person or was it done online via the internet?
   - In person
   - Online

6. How were you trained?
   - By GAB staff
   - By my county clerk
   - By the online training module

7. Was the training offered at a time and place that were convenient for you?
   - Yes
   - No
The WEDC System lists all of the reporting units that each user has permission to see. Katie Mueller is a State user, so she sees all reporting units in Wisconsin. A municipal user sees only the reporting units of her/his municipality.
