Chief Operating Officer

Annual salary range: $135,774 to $181,951
Application deadline: Open until filled.
First resume review: Friday, April 2, 2021.

Join Contra Costa County as their Chief Operating Officer – County Clerk-Recorder's Office. The County Clerk-Recorder is looking for a jack-of-all-trades administrator for this executive level position. The COO should have extremely strong experience in the following areas:

- Project management
- Familiarity with pertinent California law
- Interpersonal relations and communication
- Budget administration and financial management
- Organizational strategy and redesign
- Public focus and customer service
- Leadership development and training

While in-depth knowledge of a Clerk-Recorder’s office is not required, it would be useful in this role. More important than a career in a Clerk-Recorder’s office are the management skills necessary to run a large government department. The ideal candidate will possess characteristics and values that will bring long-term benefit to the management of the Department, including integrity, credibility, a positive attitude, teamwork, excellence, and vision. Technical skills, such as budgeting and financial management, are critical for this position. An aptitude for learning is essential, particularly the nuanced details of running a Clerk-Recorder and Elections office.
