

County of Orange, California
Registrar of Voters

Located on the Southern California coast with a culturally diverse population of 3 million, the County of Orange (Orange County) offers a high quality of life and a nearly perfect climate year-round. Orange County features excellence in education, low crime rate, a wide variety of businesses, and unlimited recreational opportunities. The County is seeking a dynamic leader with a strong elections experience, who is a visionary and a proven leader in communities, and involved at the highest levels of government at the federal, state, and local level in proven leadership positions. The ideal candidate will have high levels of integrity and be highly politically astute while maintaining absolute objectivity. A combination of education and experience that demonstrates the competency and ability to perform the duties of the position is qualifying. Typically, 10 years of progressively responsible experience in the election-related field and a Bachelor's degree in Public Administration, Political Science, Business Administration, or a related field would be qualifying. A Master's degree is highly desirable. Certification as a Certified Elections/Registration Administrator (CERA) is highly preferred. The monthly salary for the incoming Registrar of Voters is $10,429.47 – $19,779.07; placement within this range is dependent upon qualifications.
